

PUBLIC BOOK SIGNINGS AND ART SHOW

Sunday, July 18th – 1-5 p.m. at Historic Oaks Park

The Grove Picnic Area - 7805 SE Oaks Park Way, Portland Oregon

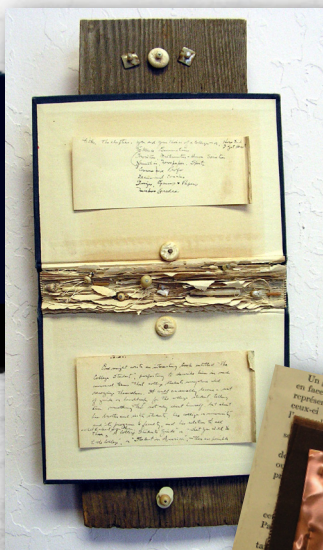

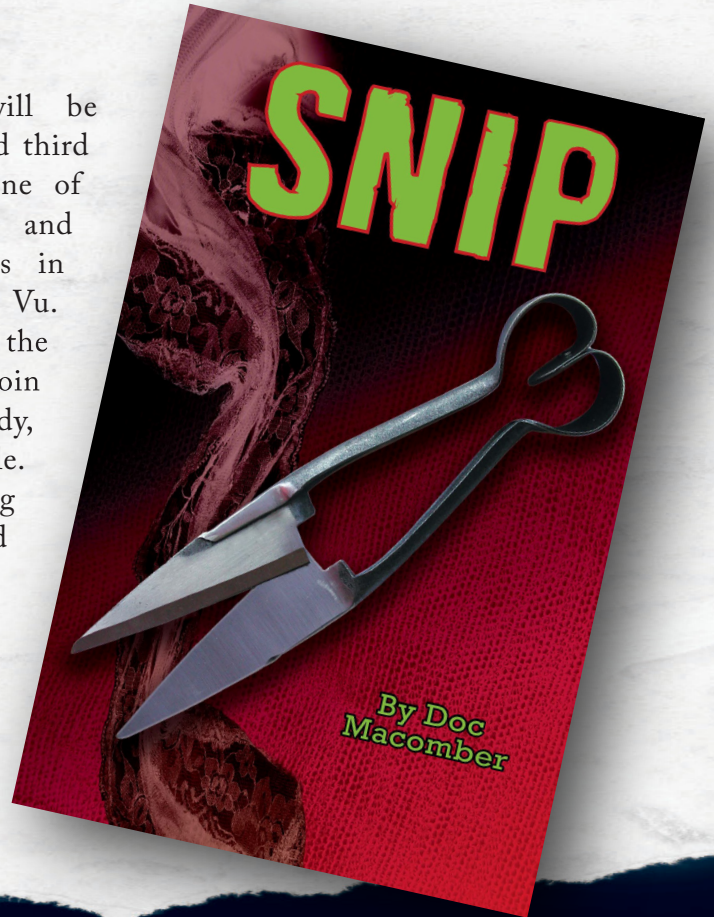

SEX, DRUGS, AND ROCK-N-ROLL – "SNIP" IS THE PERFECT SUMMER READ

Doc Macomber

Doc Macomber will be signing his latest and third mystery featuring one of the most unusual and refreshing characters in fiction today – Jack Vu. The first two in the series, The Killer Coin and Wolf's Remedy, will also be available. In addition to writing novels, screenplay and contributing to national and international publications, Doc is also a Harley-Davidson wrench and currently serves in an Air Force Special Ops Unit.

~ Literary Art for Book Lovers ~

Suzanne Hendrickson is a poet artist who creates redemptive art inspired by a love of books and second uses. Suzanne blends humor, a writer's eye, and the unexpected to turn everyday objects into eclectic art. She finds beauty in age affected items and delights in uncovering the natural art in disintegration. She will present a new collage series that illustrates our shared fascination for utensils, accessories, language time pieces, and reading. These wall pieces will be available Sunday July 18.